VALUES
MESSAGE FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Every year, we support our communities in realizing a better quality of life. We help provide equal access to education, quality healthcare, food security, shelter and programs that promote social inclusivity.

In 2019, we achieved several milestones through our initiatives.

Our scholarship and school building programs continued to enable our youth in achieving their dreams through access to education.

- We donated our 100th school building with fully furnished classrooms
- We awarded 3,128 scholarship grants. To date, we have helped 8,576 scholars.

We continued to renovate health centers for our communities to gain access to quality public healthcare. Meanwhile, our medical and diagnostic missions addressed their immediate medical concerns.

- We refurbished our 160th wellness center, the Butuan Medical Center, upgrading its pediatric and geriatric wards. It also has a new reception area, nurses’ station, lounge with sofas, hospital beds and sheets, a play area for children and comfort stations for children and the elderly.

We pressed on in bringing back the country’s love for farming in keeping with the goal of attaining food security. Through our Farmers’ Training program, families are able to grow nutritious food using sustainable farming techniques.
• We conducted our 217th Farmers’ Training. To date, 26,776 farmers grow nutritious food supply for their families. Beyond our program milestones, we treasure the close connection with our communities. We take pride in being a part of their journey and learn from their determination and perseverance amid challenges that come their way.

When “Tatang” Henry Sy Sr. founded SM Foundation, he believed in the virtue of people helping people. This fundamental principle remains at the heart of everything we do.

We demonstrate this virtue through the determination and commitment of our devoted leaders and team members who continuously help communities to achieve their dreams and to realize our vision in SM Foundation.

As the heart of SM, we honor in this report our visionary and founder “Tatang” Henry Sy Sr. and the people whose lives he has touched. We are optimistic that many generations may continue to know the values of “Tatang” as we carry on his legacy of giving.

CARRYING ON
“We must do something to help others in society. I am pleased that through SM Foundation, we are able to do many socio-civic projects and support at any one time college scholars in need who come from public schools.”

- TATANG HENRY SY, SR.
THE LASTING LEGACY THAT BEGAN WITH A BIG DREAM

Education Is the Greatest Equalizer

Tatang Henry Sy Sr. believed that education was the greatest equalizer. As one who faced challenges to achieve his dream of completing his college education, he helped young people take the first step towards achieving theirs by providing college scholarship grants in 1993.

Now, we have awarded 1,128 college scholarship grants and have helped over 4,000 scholars to date.

Dream Big, Study Hard, Work Hard

As a man with big dreams, “Tatang” knew the value of education and hard work. Although not limited to a school setting, Tatang continually educated himself in his craft as he devoted countless hours perfecting it. He passed this virtue to the SM Scholars, stressing the need for them to define their goals, while providing Christmas and summer job opportunities, along with the scholarship grants. Moreover, after graduating, scholars were offered jobs in SM.
Health is Wealth

“Tatang” Henry Sy believed that compassion knows no boundaries and that every person deserved the opportunity to have access to quality healthcare.

In 2001, SM Foundation started the “Gamot Para Sa Kapwa” program, a medical mission for families in remote communities or disaster-stricken areas, within the vicinity of SM, that need immediate medical care.

Therapeutic Ambiance and Quality Healthcare

Through “Nanang” Felicidad Sy’s motherly heart, “Tatang” Henry Sy felt for those needing quality healthcare. Apart from quality medical facilities, he found it essential to uplift the minds and spirits of those on the road to wellness.

In 2002, SM Foundation renovated the East Avenue Medical Center - Pediatric Ward, and incorporated the first Felicidad T. Sy Wellness Center.

Now, SM Foundation has renovated its 160th Wellness Center, the Butuan Medical Center.
Donation of First School Building

Tatang believed that every student should have a conducive environment to study and develop their skills to their full potential. However, over crowded classrooms, or the lack of it, in the public school system hinder learning. So, in response to the Department of Education’s appeal in 2002 to the private sector for the donation of classrooms, SM Foundation started the school building program for students to have a space to learn, grow and improve.

A Mall for All

It all started when a young boy with autism got lost in the mall. We soon realized that SM must be equipped for the safety and enjoyment of everyone while they are in our malls. Tatang’s heart had always been for everyone to enjoy experiences and build life memories in SM malls. SM Cares is the expression of this dream, making SM a “Mall for All.”
Bringing Back Our Love For Farming

Long before the issues on food security and the plight of farming as a profession rose to global attention, “Tatang” understood the value of farming to the communities and local economies. Yet, our farmers remain to be one of the most underserved groups in our society. SM Foundation launched the Kabalikat sa Kabuhayan (KSK) program to bring back the love for farming.

Today, his vision has grown to 26,776 farmers trained through 217 farmer’s trainings conducted both in the urban and rural areas to date.

Developing the youth to their full potential

With the fast-paced growth in industries, there remained a gap in the skills match of graduates and job requirements. “Tatang” knew how important it is for underprivileged families to earn a living immediately and saw that this can be attained within a shorter period of time through technical-vocational courses.

Today, technical-vocational courses have garnered the respect of labor industries, opening opportunities for gainful employment, may it be here or abroad.
Every person is free to dream and aspire for success. We believe that education is the key to help the youth in achieving their dreams and uplifting their family out of poverty. We are committed to helping our youth achieve their dreams by awarding scholarship grants for college education and technical-vocational courses and building fully-furnished school buildings.
“Education transforms lives. With education, I have seen students break out of their shells, rise to leadership and completely reinvent themselves to reach their full potential. Seeing our scholars from whence they’ve come to where they are now, the transformation is incredible.”

— HARLEY T. SY
The Path that Leads to a Promising Journey

“Education is one of the greatest gifts a person can receive—but seeing our scholars succeed and be happy is the greatest gift of all.”

A Close Connection with Our Scholars

We are privileged to be part of real-life fairy tales—thousands of youth sharing the same hopes, dreams and inspirations.

Bringing the Dream Home
During her first semester in college, Analita Audita worked as a helper to earn enough money for her education. When she became an SM scholar, she stopped working and was able to focus on studying. Now, Analita is about to finish her BS Information Technology at the Mindanao University of Science and Technology in Cagayan de Oro. After graduating, she plans to find a job related to her degree so she can help her family and renovate their home.

On Wings of Hope and Taking Flight
After having outstanding grades in his first year at the Asia Pacific College, Edjil Lopez was recommended by the school to be an SM Scholar. Grateful for the help he received, Edjil graduated with honors and now serves the country working as a strike wing pilot for the Armed Forces of the Philippines.

“I think one of the greatest causes for an SM Scholar is to pursue a career, a path, not only for yourself but for the community, for the Filipino people and for our nation.”

An Assuring Change
Mark Rodolf Arca was almost unrecognizable when he stepped on stage during SM Foundation’s joint general assembly for its college and tech-voc scholars. It has been seven years since he graduated as an SM Scholar, as summa cum laude and placing 4th in the 2012 CPA Board exam. Now, he is working at SyCip Gorres Velayo & Co. (SGV & Co.) and is holding the position of Director in the Assurance practice.
The Room that Opens Many Doors
The 100th School Building

“Ang Kabataan ang Pag-asang Bayan.”
(The Youth is the Hope of our Nation.)

- Dr. Jose Rizal

While developing countries face the challenges of an aging population, we, in the Philippines, are privileged with the energy of a fresh and young generation. To a child, the classroom is a place of wonder—a place to learn new things. To us, it is the room that opens many doors.

Last October 17, 2019, in partnership with the Manila Southcoast Development Corp. (MSDC), we turned over SM’s 100th school building to the Looc Elementary School in Nasugbu, Batangas.

Wall clocks in every classroom develop the value and discipline of time-management a skill that is essential throughout life.

Each teacher has a space to share new ideas and skills, opening a child’s eyes to a bigger world and developing a child’s love for learning.
All students have their own chairs, their own space to grow.

Wall fans are placed in every classroom to help refresh each student—to bring about inspiration and help them become motivated to study harder.

Panoramic whiteboards serve as the backdrop of life’s lessons. Every day, new things are discovered, learned and realized.

Each student has access to a computer, allowing them to have the whole world within their reach, just one click away.

They also have clean washroom, equipped for PWD to learn proper hygiene habits.

There is a space for students to wash their hands, providing them extra protection from the spread of diseases.
We help our communities enjoy better quality of life by caring for the sick. We help address medical needs through our free medical and diagnostic missions. To help provide access to universal health care, we renovate public health centers and medical facilities to meet PhilHealth accreditation, allowing families to enjoy quality healthcare within their communities.
“Good health is the wellspring of priceless vitality which we hope for every family in our communities to have and enjoy.”

– ELIZABETH T. SY

The Butuan Medical Center traces its roots to the City General Hospital that started operations in 1968 as a 25-bed capacity health facility. The renovation of the Butuan Medical Center was launched as part of SM Foundation’s efforts to promote health and wellness. It is aligned with the government’s Universal Health Care program, guaranteeing equitable access to quality and affordable healthcare services to all, as well as the United Nations 2030 Sustainable Development Goals.

Through the 160th Wellness Center, the Butuan Medical Center can practice the patient focused-centered care, allowing them to be more responsive and receptive to the preferences, needs and values of the patient.

The Harvest from Mother Earth

We want to help attain food security through the Kabalikat sa Kabuhayan (KSK) for Sustainable Agriculture. Through the program, we help families in our communities develop sustainable farming techniques.

ADRIAN B. ARCEO
Adrian Arceo, who underwent KSK Farmers’ Training for the second time, became inspired to teach others about agriculture. “Ma’am ginagawa ko po ito di lang para sa akin, pero para na rin po pasalamatan ang SM sa ginawa niya sa buhay ko—kaya magtuturo ako.”
(Ma’am, I’m doing this not only for myself but to show my gratitude to SM for what they’ve done for my life—this is why I want to teach.)

ANGELA GEORGE GUIA KAMAHORA
When Angela first started farming, she knew very little about it and wanted to learn more. Through the program, she was able to immerse herself with farming. Aside from the program itself, Angela was also grateful for the new relationships she has made with the help of SM Foundation. “Yung KSK po, di lang yung sa farming, pati na rin yung interpersonal relationships na nabubuo sa aking mga nakagroupo.”
(In KSK, I am grateful not only because I’ve learned about farming, but also because of the interpersonal relationships we’ve made within the groups.)
Our country is one of the most vulnerable to disasters. We want to help spread hope to our affected communities by serving as one of the first responders during calamities, giving immediate assistance in form of medicine and other basic needs.
"We believe it is our responsibility to provide access to basic goods and services and become the first responders to the communities we operate in during their most trying time."

- HEBERT T. SY
Amidst calamities, the Filipino spirit continues to rise above adversities. Not a stranger to both natural and man-made disasters, Filipino communities have learned to hold on to each other to gather strength, hope and faith.
